

Fees and Cancellation Policy

My current fees are $95.00 for the initial session and follow up sessions if you pay at the time of the session by cash or check. For Visa, Mastercard, and Discovery cards, or if you need to be billed, my fee is $100.00. All my sessions are 50 minutes long.

I have a 24-hour cancellation policy. If you need to change the time of a session, for any reason, including illness, I need to know a day in advance or I will charge for my time.

If most schools are closed because of inclement weather, I won't charge for a missed visit if you call me and let me know you will not be able to drive in. However, I often do phone sessions and that is always an option if you feel you can't come into my office.

Because my office is in my home, I do not have a waiting room. You are welcomed to wait on the porch and enjoy the garden if weather permits. However, please wait until the time of your session to ring the bell.

I do not charge for brief phone calls unless they became excessive, which has not yet occurred in my practice. I also do not charge for phone calls consulting with your therapist, physician, or other health care provider unless the time for such calls equals 30 minutes or more in a week, a rare occurrence.

If you want to be reimbursed by your insurance company or another third party payer, I will give you a bill that you can submit for reimbursement. I do not accept insurance as payment. If you want to be certain that your carrier will reimburse you, call the benefits office and tell them that you have been referred to a licensed dietitian for the condition with which you have been diagnosed. Your physician will likely be willing to give you a referral for my services if necessary.
